Welcome, Matthew, we're thrilled to have you with us!

A HUGE THANK YOU TO DAN SCHOFIELD FOR HIS INVALUABLE FEEDBACK

His comments reinforce the Hub's commitment to ethical, sustainable and quality-driven procurement, and highlight the importance of long-term value over lowest-price competition. Dan's insight reflects the positive impact the framework is having on contractors and clients, while helping to guide NWCH's ongoing improvement and future strategic direction.

NWCH appreciates Dan's openness, commitment to best practice and continued partnership. His contribution strengthens our shared goal of delivering high-quality projects, supporting local communities and championing responsible construction across the North West.

NWCH CONSULT - NETWORKING EVENT JANUARY 2026

On Thursday 15th January, we hosted our first NWCH Consult networking event.

The event was filled with a brilliant atmosphere, insightful conversations, new connections, and exciting opportunities to collaborate.

It was fantastic to see so many professionals come together to share ideas and build meaningful relationships.

We're already reflecting on the valuable discussions that took place and looking forward to the partnerships that will grow from the day.
